

Please leave Indiana's Telephone Privacy law alone.

The FCC should NOT implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's telephone Privacy law protections.

I don't have to worry about my elderly parents being caught off-guard by having predators/solicitors calling them for money that they don't have.